

Biography Project

Write at least one paragraph on parts 1-3.

Part 1.

Why did you choose this biography/autobiography? Why are you interested in this person? (20 pts.)

Part 2.

What did your subject accomplish in his or her life? What did you admire most? What didn't you admire about that person. (50 pts.)

Part 3.

If you could become that person, what would you do differently in his or her life? Why? Explain thoroughly. (70 pts.)

Write an essay on the following, using proper essay format (introduction, body, conclusion).

Part 4.

Explain how this person fits with the theme diversity. Your subject may have lived life of diversity, encouraged diversity in others, or may have fought against diversity. Explain how this theme is important in your subject's life. (150 pts.)

Bibliography

Part 5.

Please provide a full bibliography. (10 pts.) Follow this model:

Last Name, First Name. Title in Italics or Bold. City where published: Publisher, Year published. (note punctuation and indent)

Eisler, Riane. Tomorrow's Children: A Blueprint for Partnership Education in the 21st Century. Boulder, Westview Press. 2000.

Presentation

Part 6.

Create a presentation about this person. You may use PowerPoint, web pages, audio cassette, video, poster, music, diary, drama, etc. (100 pts.)

Grade Yourself

Part 7.

Grade yourself (A B C D or F). Explain why you deserve the grade you suggest.